

COMPUTABLE Future lab

Computable Future Lab is the innovation and experience pavilion for start-up, scale-up companies and universities who develop inspiring applications of the latest technologies. Participants demonstrate on their own stand the possibilities of technologies like blockchain and machine learning and the latest trends healthtech.

Powered by

WHY

- Connect with:
 - suppliers
 - Partners
 - New customers
 - Media
- Gather input and feedback
- Expand brand awareness

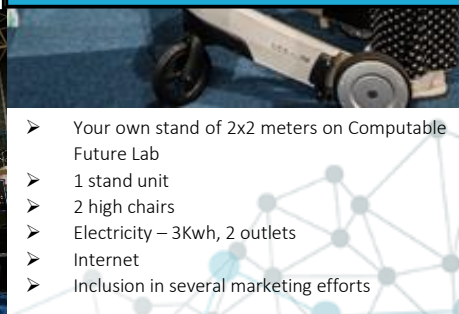

YOU WILL GET

- Your own stand of 2x2 meters on Computable Future Lab
- 1 stand unit
- 2 high chairs
- Electricity – 3Kwh, 2 outlets
- Internet
- Inclusion in several marketing efforts

PARTICIPATION CRITERIA

- Your solution is based on an upcoming technology;
- Visitors can experience your solution either as demo or in a full working product;
- Your solution is truly innovative and distincts itself from competitors;
- You work for an university start-up or scale-up company.

COMPUTABLE EDITORIAL TEAM

To apply for a FREE participation at Computable Future Lab, please provide a one-page submission that includes a company name and description and a description of the solution and the way it can be presented at the event.

All received applications will be judged by the Computable editorial team. Available stands will be allocated to companies based on their application.

For sponsor possibilities, please contact us on the contact details underneath.

CONTACT

Justus Hemelaar - justus@computable.nl or +31 (0)6 128 41 745